

FUNDING OPTIONS FOR BOOK PUBLICATIONS IN AUSTRIA

Funding agency	Funding and amount	Remarks	Conditions	Link
ÖFG – Österreichische Forschungsgemeinschaft	Printing allowance – Per committee meeting: max. € 12,000.00 – For each funding for printing costs: max. € 2,000.00	For works that – are of high scientific quality. – have not yet been published and contain new research results. – otherwise would not be published or only with unreasonably high financial burden for the author or publisher.	– Austrian citizens or persons who carry out their academic work predominantly in Austria and who have developed the work submitted for funding within this context are eligible to submit applications. – Works for which applications for printing- cost allowances have also been submitted to the FWF are generally excluded from any possible funding.	https://www.oefg.at/foerderungen/druckkostenzuschuesse/ (german-language website)
Cultural department MA 7	Allowances towards the printing costs of scientific publications The amount and scope of the funding will depend on the budgetary situation.	– The project must be identifiable as a current scientific project. – It must be clear from the available documents that those submitting the application for funding are up to date with the latest developments in their field and are tackling current and innovative questions. – The projects to be funded should be related to concrete problems or to research questions specific to Vienna, i.e. to research fields for which important scientific traditions exist in Vienna.	– Publishers domiciled in Vienna are eligible to apply. – There is no entitlement to funding. – Funding will be granted in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity. – The timely and correct submission of previous funding statements is required for funds to be awarded.	https://www.wien.gv.at/kultur/abteilung/foerderungen/leitfaden-druckkosten-literatur.html (german-language website)

FWF - The Austrian Science Fund	Independent publications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – For new digital publication formats: max. € 50,000.00 – Such conventional publication formats as monographs and anthologies: max. € 22,000.00 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Funding for the publication of independent scientific publications aimed at making them accessible to a wider public. – In addition to monographs, anthologies and proceedings, funding will also be provided for new digital formats such as apps, wiki models, scientifically commented databases, web-based publications enriched by a variety of media (audio, video, animations, etc.) and so on. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Neither a specific academic degree nor Austrian citizenship is a prerequisite. – Application only by a single natural person; institutes, institutions or companies are not eligible to submit applications. – People who predominantly carry out their scientific work in Austria or who do so in other countries under the responsibility of an Austrian research institution are eligible to submit applications. – Presentation of the results from internationally relevant basic scientific research. 	https://www.fwf.ac.at/de/forschungsfoerderung/fwf-programme/selbststaendige-publikationen/
Federal states	Funding for scientific publications	Several federal states offer funding for publications that are directly relevant and significant to the respective federal state.	Examples: (german-language websites) https://www.wissenschaft.steiermark.at/cms/ziel/75591860/DE/ http://www.noel.gv.at/noel/Wissenschaft-Forschung/Wissenschaft - Foerderung.html

As of: August 2023. Please note that in spite of careful checks being carried out, we will be unable to assume any guarantee or liability for the accuracy, completeness and topical nature of the information provided.

CONTACT

Silvia Ziemkendorf
Service Group Publication Services

TU Wien Bibliothek
Resselgasse 4
1040 Wien

Telephone: +43 1 58801-44278

Email: academicpress@tuwien.ac.at

Website: <https://www.tuwien.at/academicpress/en/>

This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>