ESSENTIALS IN SUPPORTING OPEN SCIENCE

ERASMUS+ STAFF MOBILITY WEEK AT TU WIEN BIBLIOTHEK (VIENNA, 11 MAY UNTIL 17 MAY 2022)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date in May</th>
<th>AM 10 – 12</th>
<th>PM 13.30 – 16.00</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>No activities foreseen in the morning session</td>
<td>Opening and Welcome address (30 minutes)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Presented by Paolo Budroni</td>
<td>Topics of this Erasmus and initial discussion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 12          | Presented by Barbara Sánchez Solís
FAIR Data Management
Services and organizational structures at TU Wien; Discussion of different implementation scenarios in research institutions | Presented by Chris Schubert
Set up of research vocabulary with expertises & requirements e.g. of the Austrian Academy of Science (ÖAW) and/or Naturhistorisches Museum (NHM)
Contribution by Guest (one hour session) tbd |
| 13          | Presented by Elise Harder
The Role of Persistent Identifiers in the Research Context
This session will give an overview on the importance of a widespread use of persistent identifiers for objects, people, institutions and others on a local, national and international level via consortia and initiatives. | Presented by Paolo Budroni
Contribution by Guest (one hour session) tbd
Discussion - Moderation Paolo Budroni |
| 16          | Presented by Alicia Gómez Sánchez
Open Science and its Implications on Research Assessment
This session aims to discuss the implications of Open Science on how to assess research. Additionally, an overview on the use of responsible metrics will be given, and participants will have the opportunity to discuss about proposals for next generation metrics. | Presented by Paolo Budroni
Governance issues in complex ecosystems: Protecting, accessing and sharing information and data.
Why it is important to reflect on the meaning and significance of beauty |
| 17          | Conclusive session
Plenary discussion
Implementation in RPOs of the topics mentioned during the Erasmus | VENUE:
TU Wien Bibliothek, 1040 Vienna, Resselgasse 4, 5th floor
ZOOM-LINK: still to be defined – this will happen according to covid situation |