INFORMATION SHEET FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Bachelor's Programme

Admission requirements

1. General University Entrance Qualification

- Austrian secondary-school leaving certificate or any other Austrian certificate testifying the right to study a certain subject at a university or,
- a foreign certificate which is equivalent to one of these Austrian certificates,
- or a document certifying the completion of studies of at least three years at a recognized domestic or foreign post-secondary educational institution

2. Special University Entrance Qualification (only for non-EU/EEA-Citizens)

- The Certificate of special entrance qualification for university studies consists in the fulfilment of additional study specific admission requirements including the admission statement to the chosen degree programme, applicable in the state which issued the secondary education diploma. You have to prove that you would be entitled to an admission to your chosen degree programme in the country which issued your secondary education diploma for the semester you want to start your studies at the TU Wien. A corresponding confirmation referring to the nearest related branch of studies must be provided in cases where the branch of studies applied for does not exist in the country where the secondary school leaving diploma was issued.
- The confirmation must be issued by a technical university / faculty of the country where the secondary school leaving diploma was issued. It must be valid for the desired date of commencement of studies at the TU Wien.

3. Proficiency in German

The following documents are to be submitted:

1. Completed and signed application form
2. Proof of General University Entrance Qualification (officially legalised original documents or officially legalised copies, both with official translation)
3. Proof of German Knowledge
4. Proof of Special University Entrance Qualification (officially legalised original documents or officially legalised copies, both with official translation)
Proof of Special University Entrance Qualification is not required in the following cases:
 - Citizens of EU and EEA countries with a proof of general university entrance qualification irrespective of the country of issue;
 - Persons who have had their centre of interest in Austria during five continuous years prior to the first application at TU Wien or who have a person, who meets this requirement, obliged to maintain them. Obligation arises for spouses and for parents. You must submit a confirmation of registration in Austria, residence permit, a confirmation of social insurance of the last five years of yourself, your parent or spouse (as a proof of means of subsistence; proof of time periods in which you were self-insured, will not be accepted) and either your birth certificate (parents) or the wedding certificate (spouse).
 - Persons who enjoy immunities and privileges in Austria according to regulations under the Austrian Independence Treaty (Staatsvertrag) or under Austrian law (diplomatic staff) as well as their spouses and children (proof: Legitimationskarte).
 - Refugee officially recognised in Austria pursuant to the Geneva Convention or persons who have a permission to stay in Austria according to the Asylum Act (passport or "Asylkarte" and the notification of the responsible refugee board)
 - Persons who have obtained a secondary school leaving certificate from an Austrian school abroad (for example: St.-Georgs-Kolleg in Istanbul);
 - Non-Austrian journalists accredited in Austria with their main working interest in Austria as well as their spouses and children. (Certificate of Accreditation)
 - Persons who receive a study grant according to regulations under the Austrian Independence Treaty or who receive such a grant provided by an Austrian federal, state or local authority
5. Students wishing to continue studies commenced elsewhere at the TU Wien are required to provide a current list of the subjects and grades of all examinations taken in the course of studies previously commenced.
6. Applicant's passport copy
7. Examination certificates of relevant previous academic studies.

Documents and legalisation:

Documents are certified to confirm the authenticity of the seals and signatures affixed. Therefore, documents issued abroad must as a rule be certified by the Foreign Ministry of the country of issue as well as by the competent Austrian mission in the relevant country. Documents issued in member countries of the Hague Convention must be certified using the apostille.

No special certification is required for documents issued in EU member countries or in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Macedonia, Norway, Serbia and Montenegro, Switzerland.

Submission of original documents is as a rule required. It is recommended, however, to submit certified copies as the TU Wien assumes no responsibility whatsoever for documents lost in the mail.

Authorized and completely certified German or English translations must be enclosed with documents issued in foreign languages.

Proficiency in German

For the application of admission is necessary to provide proof of German language skills at the Level A2 or higher.

The following certificates are accepted for a periode of two years beginning with the examination date:

- Österreichisches Sprachdiplom - ÖSD Zertifikat A2.
- Goethe Institut - Goethe Zertifikat A2.
- telc Deutsch A2.
- Deutsches Sprachdiplom der Kultusministerkonferenz DSD I.
- Sprachenzentrum der Universität Wien - Prüfung auf dem Niveau A2/2.

A prove of proficiency in German corresponding to level C1 has to be given. The following certificates are accepted or a periode of three years beginning with the examination date of the evidence of proficiency in German:

- Österreichisches Sprachdiplom - ÖSD Zertifikat C1.
- Goethe Institut - Goethe Zertifikat C1.
- telc Deutsch "C1 Hochschule".
- Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang ausländischer StudienwerberInnen DSH2.
- Deutsches Sprachdiplom der Kultusministerkonferenz DSD II - C1.
- Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache (Test DaF),- levelTDN 4.
- Sprachenzentrum der Universität Wien - level C1/2.

The following types of proof are valid for an unlimited time:

- School-leaving certificate from a school where the language of instruction is German and all exams are carried out in German. This applies also for Austrian or German schools abroad.
- Graduation from a study programme of at least 3 years duration at a university where the teaching language is German.
- Passing of the supplementary exam German (Ergänzungsprüfung Deutsch) at a University Preparation Programme from an Austrian University.

If you cannot prove the level C1 of knowledge of German you will be admitted as a non-degree programme student. You will have the possibility to attend German courses to prepare for the supplementary examination of German.

Please note, after successfully completing the exam, you will be admitted as degree programme student.

PLEASE NOTE!

The Austrian universities are not able to grant scholarships for foreign students. Detailed information relating to the cost of living in Austria, study materials, accommodation and opportunities to finance studies can be obtained from the Association of Austrian Students at the TU Wien: <http://www.htu.tuwien.ac.at> or tel.:+43-1-58801/49502. For information relating to residence permits please contact the Austrian Embassy in your country.

ATTENTION! Students solely can do the pre-enrolment as well as the personal enrolment as degree or non-degree student after receiving the admission letter. The personal enrolment is only possible during the general admission period. The requirements stipulated for this purpose must be fulfilled personally. For more detailed information relating to enrolment please visit http://www.tuwien.ac.at/en/services/department_for_studies_and_examinations/the_conditions_for_admission_of_foreigners/

PLEASE NOTE! Deadlines

The complete application for admission must be submitted by 5th September for the winter semester or by 5th February for the summer semester. Your application can only be processed for the current semester if the Admission Office receives the documents within the mentioned general admission period. Extensions of this period will not be granted!

Citizens of EU and EEA countries are subject to the general admission period.

Send in your documents in a timely manner, allowing for up to 10-12 weeks processing time! Please note that the Admission Office of TU Wien is not able to provide you with information about the current status of your application until the full processing time has expired!

Supplementary Examinations

Supplementary examinations will be specified in the admission notification where certificates issued abroad are not equivalent to the Austrian secondary-school leaving certificate. Prescribed supplementary examinations must be completed at the University Preparation Programme ("Vorstudienlehrgang der Wiener Universitäten - VWU").

Tuition Fees

Degree students with EU citizenship, citizenship of EEA countries, students from Switzerland and refugees under the provisions of the Geneva Convention don't have to pay the tuition fee, as long as they study within the minimum duration of their degree programme plus two additional semesters. In this case students pay only the students' union fee until the end of the admission period in order to continue their studies. In case they exceeded the minimum duration of the degree program (plus two additional semesters) they have to pay the tuition fee. This amount consists of the tuition fee and the students' union fee.

Citizen of non-EU-/EEA-countries have to pay from the beginning of their studies at the TU Wien the double amount of the tuition fee and the students' union fee. For more detailed information concerning the tuition fee and the students' union fee please visit <http://www.tuwien.ac.at/dle/studienabteilung/studienbeitrag/>
