I agree that the course fees are due upon receipt of registration and are to be paid promptly upon receipt of the invoice. Participation in the course is only possible after full payment of the invoice. The TU Wien reserves the right to cancel the seminar for important reasons, especially if the minimum number of participants is not reached. In this case, any course fees already paid will be refunded. However, this does not give rise to any further claims.

Furthermore, I agree that the personal data provided will be electronically recorded and processed for the purpose of course participation.
