Data Protection Information for Participation in the online survey for “MountResilience”

Data protection and its safeguarding are important concerns of the TU Vienna. Personal data is processed in strict compliance with the principles and requirements laid down in the DSGVO (Austrian General Data Protection Regulation), in the Austrian DSG (Data Protection Law) and in the FOG (Research Organization Act). The TU Vienna processes only those data that are necessary to achieve the intended purposes and always strives to ensure the security and accuracy of the data.

Responsible:

Rectorate of the Technical University of Vienna
Karlsplatz 13
1040 Wien

Data Protection Officer:

Mag. Christina Thirsfeld
Technische Universität Wien
Karlsplatz 13/018, 1040 Wien datenschutz@tuwien.ac.at

The following data are processed during this data processing operation:

- Name, Surname
- E-mail addresses
- Any other contact data provided voluntarily
- Documents

The data will be collected directly from you.

Legal basis for the data processing

The processing and use of your personal data is based on §2d (3) FOG (consent) and Art. 6 (1) lit. 3 (public interest) and is limited to the above purposes.

Purpose of the data processing

The processing of this data is carried out for the purpose of scientific research and serves exclusively to establish contact for queries and potential interview requests for further information on the project initiative in question (interview), as well as invitations to events within the framework of the research project.

Categories of recipients of personal data

In the course of processing and analysis for the above-mentioned purpose, the data will be passed (without personal reference) on to employees of the ZSI - Centre for Social Innovation and the University of Milan who are involved in the MountResilience research project as project partners. Furthermore, all evaluations and presentations of results that are published or passed on to third parties are carried out in pseudonymised form.

Storage period

If the stored personal data is no longer required for the aforementioned purposes, it will be deleted.

Rights of data subject

As a data subject of this data processing, you have the following rights vis-à-vis the Technische Universität Wien

- Right of information
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to object

The following rights do not apply insofar as the achievement of purposes pursuant to Art. 89(1) GDPR is likely to be rendered impossible or seriously impaired thereby:

- Right of access of the data subject (Art. 15 GDPR),
- Right to rectification (Art. 16 GDPR),
- Right to erasure or right to be forgotten (Art. 17 GDPR),
- Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 GDPR),
- Right to data portability (Art. 20 DSGVO), and
- Right to object (Art. 21 DSGVO).

Furthermore, as a data subject, you have the right to complain to the data protection authority about allegedly unlawful data processing or non-compliance with our obligations under the DSGVO.

Declaration of consent under data protection law pursuant to § 2d (3) Forschungsorganisationsgesetz

I agree that the Technische Universität Wien (hereinafter referred to as "TU Wien") may process the following personal data:

- Name, Surname
- E-mail address
- Any other contact data provided voluntarily
- Documents

for the purpose of the research project „MountResilience“ of the TU Wien.

I hereby declare that I have been informed about the information obligations (right to information/correction/deletion etc.) according to Art. 12 - 21 DSGVO and have taken note of them.

I hereby declare that this declaration of consent is made on a voluntary basis. I am also informed that I may informally revoke my consent at any time with effect for the future without any adverse consequences.

I can send my declaration of revocation

- By post to: Research Unit Urban and Regional Research (E280-02), Attn. Mr. Johannes Suitner, Karlsplatz 13, 1040 Wien
- By E-mail to: johannes.suitner@tuwien.ac.at

In the event of revocation, the TU Wien will delete the data stored by the TU Vienna and any commissioned processors upon receipt of my declaration of revocation. The revocation does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out until then.
