1 Preamble

The following terms and conditions govern all use of the TU Wien Research Data service by you and any third parties who use your account. Use of the service is offered subject to acceptance of and compliance with all of the terms and conditions contained herein (the TU Wien Research Data Terms of Use) and all other applicable operating rules, policies¹ and procedures of the service. By clicking “I accept” and/or by your use of the service, you agree and accept all the terms in this Terms of Use document.

2 General service description

TU Wien Research Data is an institutional repository of TU Wien that enables storing, sharing and publishing of digital objects, in particular research data for all active members of TU Wien including students at TU Wien, whereas content of students is subject to general checks before being published. Other users must be approved by active members of TU Wien with a valid employment contract.

The service provider (TU Wien) makes capacity principally available at no charge. However, in special cases requiring extra effort and expenses, costs may be incurred. Furthermore, the services of the service provider are carried out with no warranty, especially in regards to availability and duration.

The uploaded content may be seen and used by TU Wien Research Data users within the limits of the rights specified by the rights holder, and the access option selected by the configuring user. Content stored in TU Wien Research Data can be found by search engines such as Google especially due to their metadata.
