

NaDemo

Sustainable landfill aftercare model for Austria (NaDemo)

The aim of the present project is to develop the basis for a landfill aftercare model for Austria, which allows the costs for the long-term care of landfills to be determined and minimized. Moreover, the project results should also ensure that landfills are handled in a uniform manner during aftercare in order to prevent potential environmental hazards arising from closed landfills.

>> Project characteristics