

BIMaterial

Process design for BIM based, material building passport (BIMaterial)

BIMaterial develops the methodology for digital building modeling for the purpose of creating a material database and the creation of the demolition concept using BIM in the design phase (optimization of the planning) together with rule sets (query parameters) for the MGP analysis of the BIM model as well as a specification for a BIM based MGP app.

>> Project characteristics