

OEAD_Global South

In the project recommendations for the development of waste management plans for communities in African countries are being drawn up in exchange with universities in Egypt, Uganda and Zambia. In addition, a knowledge exchange on the subject of "waste analysis and characterization" takes place as part of a jointly organized winter school in Egypt.