

Ylva Huber is a geneticist by training and joined the Austrian Research Promotion Agency (FFG, Division of European and International Programmes) in 2004. She acts as ERC National Contact Point (NCP) since 2011 and coordinates FFG's contribution to the EURAXESS initiative. Previous functions in the context of the EU Framework Programme for Research and Innovation include Membership of the Programme Committee for Health, National Expert for the Innovative Medicines Initiative (IMI) and contributions to a number of EU Coordination and Support Actions, with a focus on collaboration between academia and business.