

Elisabeth Schludermann

Since over 10 years Elisabeth Schludermann supports researchers bringing their ideas into successful applications. Having been a researcher by herself she knows the beautiful as well as frustrating moments during application phase on a very personal level.

Still curiosity driven she's really eager to learn more about cool research ideas at TU Wien and to support these into successful applications. She's the main TU Wien contact for ERC grants.