

Roadmap for a Future Comprehensive Raw Material Balance

In order to ensure a sustainable supply of mineral raw materials in Austria, the BMLRT developed the "Raw Materials Master Plan 2030", in which the need for a raw materials accounting system was outlined. The TSI project "Roadmap for a Future Comprehensive Raw Material Balance" aims to develop a corresponding model for certain raw materials and provide recommendations for the establishment of a broad raw material accounting model.

>> Project characteristics